About this Report

Your birth chart is a picture of where the Sun, Moon and planets were located in the heavens and the patterns they formed at the time you were born. It is your own unique energy pattern and will stay with you throughout your life. This report shows how the current positions of Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto will be interacting with the positions of the planets in your personal birth chart during the period of October 2016 through December 2018.

The current planetary movements are called transits. The patterns they form with your birth chart planet are called aspects.

How long a transit lasts varies quite a bit. Jupiter transits usually last around two weeks, while Pluto transits can last two to three years. You will have more Jupiter transits because Jupiter moves faster than the other transiting planets in this report. Jupiter moves through all the signs every twelve years, while Pluto, which is furthest from the Sun, takes 248 years to move through all the signs. The section on each transiting planet will provide you with more information.

How to Read Your Report

Transits to your birth chart will be shown in the following format . For example, transiting Jupiter sextile Uranus in your birthchart would be shown as follows:

Dec 31, 2014	(Nov 4, 2014 to Jan 11, 2015)	Jup Sxtil Ura
Date transit is exact:	In effect this entire time:	Transiting planet's aspect to planet in your chart

The yellow highlighted dates are the dates that are important. The highlighted dates show how long you will experience the transit. The first date shows when the aspect is exact.

Because the transiting planets appear to move backwards for a certain part of every year (go retrograde), the same transit may appear more than once. Your report will tell you if a transit has occurred earlier and the prior dates on which it happened.

The Meaning of the Aspects:

Conj (conjunction): A transiting planet is at the same sign and degree as a planet, the Ascendant or Midheaven in your birth chart. This is a very powerful aspect. The transiting planet's energies are merging with that point in your birth chart.

Sqr (square): A transiting planet is 90 degrees away from a planet, the Ascendant or Midheaven in your birth chart. The transiting planet's energies bring tension, action and growth into your life. This can be experienced as a blockage or a challenge at first, but has the potential to be turned into a building block. A square can represent a turning point in your life.

Oppos (opposition): A transiting planet is 180 degrees from a planet, the Ascendant or Midheaven in your birth chart. This is an active and energizing time and involves interactions with others. It can be challenging, but has potential for cooperation, awareness and fulfilment.

Sxtil (sextile): A transiting planet is 60 degrees away from a planet, the Ascendant or Midheaven in your birth chart. This brings positive, supportive, motivating and lively energies into your life. Opportunities for positive growth can occur.

Trine: (trine): A transiting planet is 120 degrees from a planet, the Ascendant or Midheaven in your birth chart. This is a time of ease and equilibrium. The energies are flowing and you can usually achieve your aims more easily than usual. However, you will not be pushed to take advantage of this good fortune and you could sit back, do nothing and fail to actualize its full potential.

Something to Consider

Every transit has multiple meanings and potentials and each person will respond based on their own level of maturity, self-awareness and understanding. You are likely to respond one way at 20 years old, another way at 40 and yet another way at age 60, etc. As we get older, we are usually much more experienced and skilled at handling these influences. When you read your forecast, remember it is explaining all the ways this transit could manifest. Depending on each person's level of awareness and maturity, it could manifest very strongly for some, and less noticeably for others.

The aspects the transiting planets make to your birth chart reveal how your life path is unfolding and the conditions you will encounter along the way. You will notice when you read your report, that some transiting aspects can be quite challenging, while others seem very pleasant and easy. Although you may not want the challenging transits, do not fear them. These are the times on your life path when you will gain the most spiritual growth and wisdom through your experiences and the way you handle them.

Your report can be used as a tool of self growth by taking notes about the events in your life during the yellow highlighted periods. But even more important than events, are notes about what you are feeling and thinking at the time. You could write them right on the report or in a journal. This is especially revealing when a transit occurs more than once. You may go back and see that something which seemed unimportant or was just a thought or a feeling the first time, develops further the second or third time it happens. If you haven't written your thoughts and feeling down, it is usually very hard remember them. If you have written them down, you might be amazed that something seemingly insignificant at the time was a precursor to later developments.

Although we can't control which transits will come into our lives and when they will manifest, we can control how we respond to them. Therein is our free choice in life and our potential for growth. It is these very challenges that ultimately bring us character, depth and wisdom.

Optimism, Growth & Good Fortune

Jupiter Transits:

October 2016 through December 2018

For Miss Incognito

Jupiter Transits 4

Bring: Optimism, confidence, faith, enjoyment, fun, expansion, growth, “good luck”, humor, positive attitude and a philosophical outlook

Possible experiences in the area of your life Jupiter is transiting: You will feel like expanding the part of your life being affected by Jupiter and will make plans to improve conditions. You have more trust that everything will turn out for the best and behave in a confident and assured manner. Because you are projecting such a positive attitude and believing in yourself, you create your own “luck” and consequently draw fortunate circumstances into your life. It is usually an easy time and you will not be forced to take action. Initiative is required in order to make the most of your opportunities, otherwise you may just experience a mildly enjoyable time and miss some of the bigger benefits. Make an effort to get out and meet people or pursue your dreams during these periods. You can make improvements and plans for your future more easily now and with less effort than you might think.

Caveats: Sometimes there can be a tendency to go overboard and to be over confident when having a Jupiter transit. Be sure to balance your optimism and expansion with realistic expectations. It is also important to be aware that Jupiter “expands” conditions in the house it is transiting. If existing conditions are problematic, they are likely to get bigger. This will give you the opportunity to deal with the situation and therefore improve your life.

Jupiter takes 12 years to transit all twelve signs and will spend about one year in each house of your birth chart. Go to the next page to see what areas of your life (houses) Jupiter will be transiting in your birth chart from October 2016 through December 2018 and how it is likely to manifest.....

Jupiter in your 9th House

Sep 7, 2016 to Dec 3, 2017

This is a time when the big questions of life occupy your attention. You may be drawn to a deeper study of philosophy, religion, metaphysics or other areas, which can open up new worlds to you. Mind-expanding studies or travel are likely, and foreign cultures have a strong appeal to you now. A pilgrimage or journey may be on the agenda.

You may have a desire to share your knowledge about metaphysical, religious, and ethical subjects, your travels or other cultures with a broader audience. During this period, you could publish your work, teach or speak about your beliefs. Legal issues are also usually favored now.

Oct 11, 2016 (Oct 6, 2016 to Oct 15, 2016) Jup Sxtil Sat

Cooperation and successful collaboration in the business and professional world are highlighted now. Legal matters and governmental matters of all kinds are likely to run very smoothly. If you are involved in legal disputes or involvements with government agencies, this is a time when a successful resolution can be reached. This is a good time for increased harmony and cooperation in any organization, club, or business of which you are a part.

Oct 18, 2016 (Oct 13, 2016 to Oct 23, 2016) Jup Conj Nep

Your mind may tend to wander off to faraway places, and your imagination is kindled with thoughts of the exotic, mystical, and fantastic. You are apt to feel restless and bored by your daily routine and find it hard to concentrate on mundane matters. This is a good time to vacation and travel.

A new surge of religious or spiritual aspiration is also evident. You feel a need to be more in touch with spiritual forces, and this is a good time for attending religious and spiritual functions, reading inspirational literature, etc. This is the time to open your mind and imagination to a grander vision and to inspire your highest aspirations. Allow yourself the time to pursue these interests.

Oct 25, 2016 (Oct 20, 2016 to Oct 30, 2016) Jup Conj Sun

Your spirits are high at this time, and you feel optimistic, self-confident, generous, and good-natured. You greet life with a fresh attitude, and it is easy for you to forget the mistakes of the past and envision bright new avenues for growth and fulfillment.

In general, this is a positive time for you, and the sense of fresh exuberance that you feel is largely due to the fact that the astrological influence at work now indicates the beginning of a new 12-year cycle. This is a time of planning and sowing seeds for new projects or a change of lifestyle. It is a good time to start a self-improvement plan such as improving your education or health, and your plan is likely to benefit you for years to come.

Note, however, that your optimism and confidence can go overboard, and you may tend to overestimate the potential gain that can be derived from a situation. Do not let your enthusiasm and optimism incline you to speculate foolishly, squander assets, or exaggerate the potential benefits to be derived from your plans. As long as you keep that in mind, you will find this to be quite an enjoyable time.

Nov 9, 2016 (Nov 4, 2016 to Nov 14, 2016) Jup Sxtil Plu

Cooperation with businesses, government agencies, organizations, and influential individuals is highlighted now. You will find that you can gain cooperation and support from authorities and bureaucracies that previously ignored your requests or advice. Organizations and influential people are also more willing to assist you in your personal plans and interests.

You may be called upon to be a representative of an organization or to assume a leadership role at this time. If so, you will perform this function very successfully.

Nov 14, 2016 (Nov 9, 2016 to Nov 20, 2016) Jup Sqr Moon

During this time period you may want more time to enjoy the company of friends and family. A family get-together is likely at this time. Your disposition is cheerful, outgoing, and warm, and you have a wonderful time sharing feelings and interests with others. This is a time when you can break down a communication barrier or feeling of distance with a person that you feel you cannot get close to.

Into The Future: 2017 and 2018 ♦ Report for Miss Incognito ♦

If you have been feeling lonely or wish you had more friends, this is an excellent time to get out of your house and meet new people. Join a club, attend a meeting or social event; you will meet people whose company you really enjoy and be glad you went. You need to expand your circle of friends a little now and break out of some old habits that are keeping you caught in a rut.

Your interest in enjoying yourself and having a good time is likely to extend to food as well, and you may put on a few pounds. Of course, it is not healthful to go overboard on rich foods and sweets. On the other hand, dieting at this time is likely to be unsuccessful too and this is not a good time to be on a strict weight-reducing program.

Dec 1, 2016 (Nov 25, 2016 to Dec 7, 2016) Jup Sqr Asc

Someone could offer you a very promising opportunity at this time, or you may have an offer for someone else that you think will be mutually beneficial. The offer seems like a "deal" that can lead to tremendous growth and success, and yet you still wonder if it is too good to be true. Because there are risks involved, it is impossible to know whether the offer will work out well, and you consequently are likely to feel uncertain what to do.

There is definitely the potential for opening up new avenues for success and fulfillment, but there is also a tendency to overshoot the mark due to over optimism and a willingness to gamble and speculate. The best course is usually to proceed with some kind of plan, but to thoroughly investigate all details as much as possible, and to avoid wild speculation.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

Jan 7, 2017 and Mar 7, 2017 (Dec 28, 2016 to Mar 17, 2017) Jup Trine Ura

This is a freewheeling, enterprising, and creative time. Fortunate opportunities arise. A new wave of optimism lifts your spirits, and successful developments in both personal and career matters make this an enjoyable time. Your creative efforts could find a successful outlet, and you receive an enthusiastic response from others. This is a time of harmony and well-being. If you have been waiting for a time to open a new door through a job change, business or commercial contact, or outlet for creative work, now is the time to pursue it with a passion. You are lucky, enthusiastic, and creative but not aggressive or even that practical, so you may choose to simply enjoy this time with enjoyable and entertaining activities rather than attempt to gain practical rewards and tangible gains.

Feb 6, 2017 (Jan 19, 2017 to Feb 23, 2017) Jup Conj Merc

You can see things from a broader perspective than usual at this time. You see the big picture clearly, and you better appreciate how your personal activities, interests, and goals fit into the needs of society as a whole. Consequently, you find ways to expand your career goals and avail yourself of opportunities and resources that you have been neglecting or overlooking. You may make long-distance phone calls and write letters to distant places in your pursuit of a grander vision for yourself. These contacts are likely to prove successful.

This is also a good time to travel or further your education in some way. Foreign cultures appeal to you now also. You would be wise to use the new experiences and ideas that come to you now as material to mold new plans and goals for yourself.

The only thing you need to watch is a tendency to have an overly optimistic assessment of a plan or project, and ignore important details, and underestimate the amount of time and energy that is needed to reach a goal.

Oct 18, 2017 (Oct 13, 2017 to Oct 22, 2017) Jup Conj Jup

This astrological influence may manifest in a subtle way in your life, but you are actually beginning an important 12-year cycle that occurs approximately at ages 12, 24, 36, etc. This time period marks the beginning of a new cycle, when you formulate plans and ideas that will extend over the next 12 years. Your ambitions and ideals slowly and gradually shift towards a new focus. This is a period of rebirth and renewed optimism. You feel ready to start a fresh new beginning in your life. Now is the time to develop new goals and a new vision of yourself. Many of the ideas that you currently have about your future and your goals will become major themes during the next 12-year cycle.

Nov 7, 2017 (Nov 3, 2017 to Nov 12, 2017) Jup Conj Mars

Physical energy and stamina are very high now. You feel energetic and enthusiastic, and you go after challenges with gusto. You have a positive "can do" attitude that enables you to accomplish much more now than is usually possible. In athletic activities, your extra boost of energy causes you to excel.

Because your energy level is high, you may not realize how hard you are working. Be careful not to overextend yourself. For example, you may do so much physical work that you are sore for a week afterward. If you have a health problem or have not kept in good physical shape, then be extra careful about going the extra mile.

Your self-confidence is also very high; you may feel almost omnipotent. In general, others welcome your energetic and optimistic input, but there is a slight possibility of being too brash or impatient. Your enthusiasm is catching and you will be able to inspire others, as well.

Nov 10, 2017 (Nov 6, 2017 to Nov 15, 2017)

Jup Sqr Sat

Significant changes and opportunities face you at this time, but making the correct decision about what to do is not likely to be easy. This is a period of critical decisions and transition. A major change in your life can occur now (new job, relocating, ending a long-term relationship or beginning a new one, etc.). In fact, it is not unusual for several important changes of this nature to be occurring. However, you may find it challenging to decide whether to go along with the new opportunities, or even push harder to make changes occur, or to try to maintain the old, familiar life style, routines, and surroundings.

One side of you is impatient to make major changes. You are tired of the same old routine and life style. You want to break free and get things really moving. You may feel there is much more to life, and you are not growing and living as fully as you ought to be. The other side of you is wary of the changes; they may just be pipe dreams and simply lead to considerable stress and disappointment. Underlying all this is the nagging question of what you really value and whether the new opportunities are more worthwhile than your current involvements. You are the only who can decide this, and you have to sort things out for yourself.

Clearly, YOU MUST MAKE SOME CHANGES. Letting things remain as they are will lead to stagnation. On the other hand, you must be careful that the changes you make will bring the THINGS THAT YOU REALLY WANT. For example, if you accept a new job only because it brings more money, but you must sacrifice other benefits of your current life style, then you may find afterward that the increase in income was not worth the sacrifices. If you are not honest with yourself or you place too much value on things that are really of secondary importance, then you will make the wrong decision.

It may also be challenging now to meet all of your obligations and still have time to do the things you want. Your responsibilities are probably similar to those of most people: to family members, to pay the bills, etc. At this critical time you can find new ways to meet these obligations, while allowing yourself more time to do the things you want to do. At the least, you will find that you can rearrange your life, make some significant changes in your daily routine, which are big steps towards leading a more fulfilling life. You may also decide that a more radical change in life style is warranted (new job, relocation, etc.). It is up to you to decide what is really important and how to best balance all aspects of your life. If you are creative, honest with yourself, and willing to go through some adjustments, you will come out much better when this astrological influence is over.

Underlying the changes in your life and the decisions you must make is a change in your values and attitudes towards life. You are now able to see your life from a broader perspective and you seek greater meaningfulness in your life.

Jupiter in your 10th House

Dec 1, 2017 to Nov 15, 2018

Opportunities for advancement in your profession or for achieving some important goal or aspiration are likely at this time. If you have been working diligently, this is a time of public recognition for your efforts and an enhanced reputation. On the other hand, you may begin to feel cramped in the area you are working in presently, discovering that it doesn't have enough scope, in which case, you may change directions and begin a new, more promising line of endeavor. This is a good time to make such changes. You have more trust and faith that you can accomplish your dreams.

Dec 3, 2017 (Nov 28, 2017 to Dec 7, 2017) Jup Conj MC

A fortunate change of circumstances is likely to occur in your work and career now. You may receive a promotion, a job offer, a large contract, or salary increase. In one way or other, you step out of a situation that had become limiting and restrictive.

Into The Future: 2017 and 2018 ♦ Report for Miss Incognito ♦

Don't wait for everything to fall in your lap. This is a good time to investigate new avenues for growth in career, to interview for a new job, and explore alternative solutions to finding fulfilling and satisfying employment. You may be surprised and hit upon something that is very good.

The only problematic tendency of this astrological influence is to become overly optimistic and consequently overextend yourself. For example, if you have your own business, you may invest too much money in advertising and promotion, or you may invest in an expansion project that exceeds available funds. This is a good time, but do not overestimate the possibilities and potential in the new opportunities. You will be fine as long as you remember to keep things in balance. Maintain a positive, yet realistic, outlook.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

Dec 10, 2017 (Dec 5, 2017 to Dec 15, 2017) Jup Sqr Plu

Social influence, power, and prestige are critical issues at this time. You try to expand your business pursuits, gain greater recognition and influence at work, and make significant advancement towards your career goals. If you have a personal business, you may decide to increase advertising and expand into new markets. You are optimistic and willing to gamble a little more than you usually would, but there are obvious risks.

Whether your efforts will be successful or not depends on how you channel the energies, but it is clear that growth and expansion will have some challenges. Some fundamental changes in attitude and overall approach to the project are needed to achieve a major success. You must be sure that your approach is not too one-sided or fanatical, thus alienating others and causing them to withdraw support for you. Some power struggles with competing individuals, businesses, or organizations may occur. However, if you keep these energies in balance, you can make significant progress.

Dec 15, 2017 (Dec 10, 2017 to Dec 20, 2017) Jup Sxtil Moon

Your ability to communicate in a warm, understanding manner during this time period is especially strong. You have a knack for picking up on others' concerns and interests and effectively sharing helpful advice and a compassionate understanding of their needs.

Into The Future: 2017 and 2018 ♦ Report for Miss Incognito ♦

If you are having a difficult time with a family member, co-worker, or friend, this is an excellent time to clear up any misunderstandings and develop a much better rapport.

This is a positive, enjoyable time. You feel good about yourself and are able to share your feelings with relative ease. Your friends are just as helpful to you as you are to them, and you find that they really appreciate you and take an interest in your welfare.

Agreements or contracts that are written or signed at this time work out well, especially if they relate directly to your personal or domestic life.

Dec 31, 2017 (Dec 25, 2017 to Jan 6, 2018) Jup Sxtil Asc

This is a harmonious, enjoyable time for you. Things run smoothly and your work is likely to take an enjoyable turn now. Pressures and deadlines are lifted. You may be asked to attend an enjoyable event or travel at this time. You wish that your life was always like this! You are not very aggressive or particularly energetic, but intense effort is not required.

Cooperation and mutual support in business-related and career-related matters is also very high. You will also find that peace and cooperation can be established between factions that have been at odds with each other. Legal matters and any involvement with government agencies or large organizations work out fortunately now. Personal relationships are also harmonious now, and there is an increased appreciation for each others' goals and aspirations, and you help each other more in achieving these goals.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

Feb 23, 2018 and Mar 22, 2017 (Feb 7, 2018 to Apr 6, 2018) Jup Conj Ven

If there is something that you have always wanted, but felt that you could not afford it, then your wait is over. You are likely to buy it now, whether you can afford it or not. The urge to splurge can be irresistible now. If you are dieting, it is likely that you will need to ease up a little. Of course, you should try to avoid unhealthful indulgence, but asceticism is not in order either. This is a time to enjoy yourself.

Into The Future: 2017 and 2018 ♦ Report for Miss Incognito ♦

You are in a fun-loving mood. Parties and other social occasions, especially of a festive nature, are likely to turn out better than expected. If there isn't a good party to go to, you may decide to throw one yourself - and be glad you did, because it will be fun.

You almost certainly will spend more money than you should, but you may also receive a bonus or gift. You have a lucky streak now that can bring you unexpected benefits.

You are not very aggressive or particularly energetic, but intense effort is not required.

Cooperation and mutual support in business-related and career-related matters is also very high. You will also find that peace and cooperation can be established between factions that have been at odds with each other. Legal matters and any involvement with government agencies or large organizations work out fortunately now. Personal relationships are also harmonious now, and there is an increased appreciation for each others' goals and aspirations, and you help each other more in achieving these goals. Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

June 19, 2018 and July 31, 2018 (June 6, 2018 to Aug 13, 2018) Jup Sxtil Moon

This astrological influence (Jup Sxtil Moon) previously occurred from Dec 10, 2017 to Dec 20, 2017.

Your ability to communicate in a warm, understanding manner during this time period is especially strong. You have a knack for picking up on others' concerns and interests and effectively sharing helpful advice and a compassionate understanding of others' needs.

Into The Future: 2017 and 2018 ♦ Report for Miss Incognito ♦

If you are having a difficult time with a family member, co-worker, or friend, this is an excellent time to clear up any misunderstandings and develop a much better rapport.

This is a positive, enjoyable time for you. You feel good about yourself and are able to share your feelings with relative ease. Your friends are just as helpful to you as you are to them, and you find that they really appreciate you and take an interest in your welfare. Agreements or contracts that are written or signed at this time work out well, especially if they relate directly to your personal or domestic life.

July 10, 2018 (June 19, 2018 to July 30, 2018) Jup Sqr Plu

This astrological influence (jup sqr plu) also occurred on Dec 5, 2017 to Dec 15, 2017.

Social influence, power, and prestige are critical issues at this time. You try to expand your business pursuits, gain greater recognition and influence at work, and make significant advancement towards your career goals. If you have a personal business, you may decide to increase advertising and expand into new markets. You are optimistic and willing to gamble a little more than you usually would, but there are obvious risks.

Whether your efforts will be successful or not depends on how you channel the energies, but it is clear that growth and expansion will have some challenges. Some fundamental changes in attitude and overall approach to the project are needed to achieve a major success. You must be sure that your approach is not too one-sided or fanatical, thus alienating others and causing them to withdraw support for you. Some power struggles with competing individuals, businesses, or organizations may occur. However, if you keep these energies in balance, you can make significant progress.

Oct 5, 2018 (Sep 30, 2018 to Oct 10, 2018) Jup Conj Ven

This astrological influence (Jup Conj Ven) previously occurred from Feb 7, 2018 to Apr 6, 2018.

If there is something that you have always wanted, but felt that you could not afford it, then your wait is over. You are likely to buy it now, whether you can afford it or not. The urge to splurge can be irresistible now. If you are dieting, it is likely that you will need to ease up a little. Of course, you should try to avoid unhealthful indulgence, but asceticism is not in order either. This is a time to enjoy yourself.

You are in a fun-loving mood. Parties and other social occasions, especially of a festive nature, are likely to turn out better than expected. If there isn't a good party to go to, you may decide to throw one yourself - and be glad you did, because it will be fun.

You almost certainly will spend more money than you should, but you may also receive a bonus or gift. You have a lucky streak now that can bring you unexpected benefits.

Jupiter in your 11th House

Nov 10, 2018 to Oct 27, 2019

Expanding your social involvements is emphasized now and you are likely to meet new friends and benefactors through participating in groups or community activities. Both new and old friends can be beneficial and fortunate for you during this period. A feeling of fellowship and of belonging to a community of kindred spirits will be important to you. Social betterment and contributing something to society is of concern to you more than ever.

Dec 9, 2018 (Dec 4, 2018 to Dec 13, 2018) Jup Trine Sat

You may feel the desire to make several minor, but significant, adjustments in your work. For example, if you are engaged in a business activity, you could consider discontinuing some advertising, using new sources for various services that you use, assigning new tasks to employees, changing advertising to appeal to a new market, making changes in the product line, etc. The worst mistake you can make now is to procrastinate and not act on your ideas. At this time you have an excellent sense of balance and proportion and good ideas about how to of how to efficiently meet goals and objectives. You can utilize this sensitivity to improve upon existing situations.

These qualities are evident in your personal life as well. You are likely to clean out your closets, reorganize, and also discover new opportunities for growth and enrichment. You may find a business or agency that is interested in a hobby of yours, or a group of people may express interest in an area that you have a lot of experience with. Do not let opportunities pass you by; this is a harmonious and pleasant time for you, and one which can also bring some especially nice opportunities to you.

You could also decide to further your education or receive additional training at this time. This training will prove to be a valuable asset for you so take advantage of this opportunity.

Underlying the changes in your life and the decisions you must make is a change in your values and attitudes towards life. You are now able to see your life from a broader perspective and you seek greater meaningfulness in your life.

Dec 16, 2018 (Dec 11, 2018 to Dec 20, 2018) Jup Sxtil Nep

You are able to share ideals and spiritual concerns with others in a very satisfying way at this time. If there is someone that you feel does not understand "where you are coming from", you may find that you are now able to effectively communicate whatever lofty, idealistic, or abstract ideas that are important to you. In doing this, you also become clearer about your own ideals and better understand others' as well.

This is also a good time to relax and enjoy a good movie or other entertainment, or take a trip to a beautiful, unusual, or inspiring place.

Dec 23, 2018 (Dec 18, 2018 to Dec 27, 2018) Jup Sxtil Sun

This time period is harmonious and pleasant. Relationships are particularly pleasant and productive now, and you will find that business agreements and partnerships formed now work out very well. Cooperation and comradery is strong, and you may receive a gift or offer from someone.

This is a wonderful time to simply enjoy life; you will find it easy to put any worries or concerns to the side. You are likely to spend some time with friends or take a vacation, and thoroughly enjoy it. Have fun!

Responsibilities and Tests

Saturn Transits:

October 2016 through December 2018

For Miss Incognito

Saturn Transits ♄

Bring: Responsibilities, duties, work, discipline, organization, necessary controls, limits, structure, seriousness, pessimism, practicality, wisdom, patience and maturity.

Possible experiences: You will feel more serious and sober and find that a great deal of patience and discipline is likely to be required in the area Saturn is transiting. However, you may also receive a reward for past hard work, such as getting a promotion. Whatever happens, it is a time of slow and steady progress if you apply yourself. Be prepared for times when it will seem like nothing is moving and you are stuck. If you persevere, behave in a patient and mature manner, and accept whatever new responsibilities or limits that life hands you, success will eventually come your way. A time of tests and learning lessons that will help you gain wisdom, depth and character.

Saturn is both a teacher and a taskmaster. Our biggest lessons in life often come during Saturn transits. Saturn's energies will require us to take responsibility, to build a solid base and to be patient, disciplined, and mature

Saturn takes 29 years to transit all twelve signs and will spend about 2.5 years in each house of your birth chart. Go to the next page to see what areas of your life (houses) Saturn will be transiting in your birth chart from October 2016 through December 2018 and how it is likely to manifest.....

Saturn in your 11th House

Oct 6, 2015 to Jan 11, 2017

This is a time of greater involvement in political or social movements and groups of kindred spirits which are organized around a common cause or ideal. You may be called upon to take on extra responsibilities or leadership role in group activities.

Commitments and loyalties to your friends and your community could impel you to get involved in a more concrete way, perhaps taking on more responsibilities than you have in the past. At the same time, you may feel less sociable than usual, and avoid groups or occasions to get together with people if there is no real purpose in it.

Oct 17, 2016

(Oct 5, 2016 to Oct 27, 2016)

Sat Trine Plu

Your dedication and commitment to your work and responsibilities at this time is very high. Your work is cut out for you. Hard work is likely to be needed by you and you respond to the situation with reliable and consistent performance. Your work is meaningful and you recognize that you are providing a tangible, valuable service to others, which gives you great satisfaction. The progress you make now is particularly important to you personally because you are doing many of the things that you have yearned to do in the past. The work is not likely to be glamorous and external rewards may not be tremendous, but do not let that deter your efforts. What you do now assists you in continuing your pursuit of deeply important and meaningful work. Take advantage of this time period to develop your concentration and talents in these areas of personal interest. You can stabilize and strengthen a position in life that will remain suitable for you for many years to come.

(Dec 26, 2016 to Jan 13, 2017)

Sat Oppos Ura

This is a time when you feel the need to break free of restrictions and what you consider outdated thinking and behavior. Your motto may well be "Out with the old, and in with the new!" People of authority, rules, regulations, and laws may seem to challenge your intentions and desires at this time. Your employer or supervisor may be domineering, or a project you planned may get stopped by a government regulation, or proposals to companies and businesses may get rejected because your ideas are considered eccentric, impractical, or not well researched.

These obstacles may appear unreasonable to you, causing you to feel rebellious and impatient. Use a tactful, constructive approach and seek ways to do the things that you want to do without attracting even greater opposition to yourself. You tend to feel eccentric and apart from the mainstream now, and may react in a manner that only increases your differences. Seek constructive alternatives. If you are resourceful and clever, there is a possibility of turning the current conflict into a "creative conflict" that eventuates in positive changes. Do not try to ignore the issues or stay quiet; confront others when necessary and bring the issues to the forefront, but do it in a way that invites others to debate the issues and address them intelligently. Find a way to blend the best of the old with the best of the new.

Saturn in your 12th House

Jan 12, 2017 to July 12, 2017

This is likely to be a period of introspection and spiritual exploration for you. Severing ties with anything nonessential in your life enables you to clear away the old to make way for the new, unencumbered by the debts and baggage of the past. Karmic conditions may arise during this period so that you can finish them. Some karmic relationships may be completed and leave your life. If there are relationships or actions in your life that are not healthy, let them go, forgive yourself, move on, and realize that you do not have to keep repeating the same patterns. Try instead, to be detached and dispassionate about your mistakes and the things which did not turn out as you hoped, and begin to make quiet preparations for the next cycle in your life.

During this period a clearing of your subconscious and a restructuring your spiritual connections will occur. This will take place behind the scenes and may not be noticeable to others. It is something you must do alone. You are preparing for a major turning point in your life when Saturn moves into your first house.

Sat Sxtil Merc

Mental objectivity and concentration are excellent now. You are able to communicate effectively now, especially on subjects that require precise, articulate formulation of principles. Your approach is well-organized, clearly structured, very matter-of-fact and based on facts.

You are able to reach agreement with others regarding rules, regulations, and proper procedures, and consequently any organizational meetings at your place of work are likely to run smoothly and concrete decisions can be reached.

This is a time when ambiguous or unclear communication with others can be cleared up and resolved, both in the business world and personal life. Take advantage of this opportunity by "setting the record straight" with anyone that you have not been able to reach a mutually clear understanding with. This is also a good time for receiving advice and assistance from a consultant or expert. The reverse is also true; you may be called upon to consult someone in an area that you have a lot of experience in, and the consultation will be very successful.

Cooperation and harmony with co-workers and colleagues is highlighted. Any club, or group that you are a part of now will work together effectively. Teamwork and coordinated effort is indicated. Business and organizational meetings run smoothly, and the group is able to come to decisive agreements and pursue goals with a clear strategy. Discipline, self-control, and concentration are particularly emphasized, and the group is able to focus on important issues, rather than be distracted by unrelated issues.

You work well with others in groups and partnerships now largely because you are very clear about what you want to do, are ready and willing to tackle the work that needs to be done, and you are confident, well-prepared, and willing to cooperate with others.

You will be able to work long hours, without the usual stress or fatigue that would accompany prolonged effort. This is a good time to concentrate on tasks and organize affairs in both your personal life and career. Projects and business

Mar 18, 2018 and May 18, 2018 (Mar 2, 2018 to June 5, 2018) Sat Sqr Nep

This can be a time when doubt is cast on your most cherished ideals and lofty dreams. If you are a religious person, you may have the sobering realization of inconsistencies in your spiritual philosophy or hypocrisies within your religion or belief system. Doubts about your spiritual path can bring you to a crisis and crossroads in your thinking and attitude towards life. If you have not been taking a strong interest in metaphysical or spiritual areas, you may have a crisis regarding charitable activities or social and political ideals. Additionally, it is common for this astrological influence to bring about a general feeling of discontent with life, lack of motivation and energy, and negative attitudes and moods, without any apparent cause.

This is an aspect that is happening around the same time for everyone born about two-years before and after your birth date, so all those around your age may be going through a similar experience. It is likely that outside events in society or the world will be a big contributor to your feelings during this period.

Feelings of discouragement, low energy and a desire to escape reality during this time can lead you to poor health habits such as insufficient exercise, eating junk food, smoking and drinking to excess. You can counteract these tendencies by taking a more active interest in spiritual, religious, idealistic, and charitable activities. For some people, a wonderful antidote is helping others with the same problem; for example, you can help people with alcohol-related problems rather than drink alcohol yourself, or help drug users rather than take drugs yourself. You are more susceptible to colds and other illnesses now, so try to maintain good health habits.

Use this period to look realistically at spiritual matters in your own life and those in society. It is time to be responsible for your own beliefs and to reconnect to your spiritual source in a more meaningful way.

Apr 18, 2018 (Apr 2, 2018 to May 3, 2018) Sat Sqr Sun

Important decisions are key issues at this time. Others may not be as receptive to your ideas as you would like and you may feel like you are on your own without much support. Hard work and focused effort will be required to achieve your goals. New responsibilities and demands on your time are likely to occur. You could receive a promotion, but it will come with lots of new duties. However, the work you do now, even if you think no one is noticing, will pay off in the future. This is a time to increase efficiency and hold back the reins. If you have your own business, for example, you probably will want to cut down on advertising and slow down on expansion, or even cut down on production, employees, and expenses. Look for areas of waste and cut down in these areas.

Sometimes challenges with employers or other authority figures may arise. If you find that happening in your life, try a slight change in your attitude and approach. Be as positive and patient as you can. By trying to keep a sense of humor and a hopeful attitude, you may find that you get along reasonably well with this person despite his/her personality or rigid policies. Also, hard-nosed, objective reasoning about the situation may reveal some alternatives that you have overlooked.

Many of the experiences you have now, although perhaps not obvious to you, test you to see what you really want to do with your life, and you need to focus your energies on the kind of work that is most meaningful to you, and cut out anything superfluous.

At this time you may start to doubt whether the line of work you are in and the things you have been working for are really worth the trouble, and you may feel inadequate at times to meet the tasks at hand. You must continue to believe in yourself and maintain your commitments to the things that are really important to you. The old and useless things must be discarded. Only you can decide what is really valuable to you; others will offer advice based on their own priorities and values, which more often than not, are different from yours.

At the end of this period you will have significantly gained in maturity and wisdom. This new found strength will serve you well in the future. Be kind to yourself and above all, keep your sense of humor close at hand. Laughing is the best antidote to taking life too seriously.

Significant progress in your career pursuits is very likely at this time. Receiving a promotion is one very common way that many people experience the effects of this astrological influence. Cooperation and assistance from people of stature and authority are also indicated. Government agencies and businesses also cooperate with you, and you are now able to break through bureaucratic red tape and gain the attention and support of large organizations and influential people.

If you own your own business, you may sign a contract with a large concern or negotiate a large project with another party. This contract or agreement will work out very well as it is based on sound principles and a well-established foundation.

At this time you are likely to feel confident and happy with whatever achievements you have made during your life. This increased confidence and good feelings about yourself assist you in making a positive impression on others. This is also a good time for interviewing, acting as a representative for a company, or any other situation that requires you to act in a responsible and dignified manner.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

Uranus Transits ☿

Bring: Changes, surprises, unpredictability, liberation, freedom, independence, originality, inventiveness, uniqueness, shocks unusual activity, awakening, genius, discovery.

Possible experiences: Surprises and changes can turn things upside down and sideways in the area Uranus is transiting You will feel a strong desire for freedom and independence and consequently take more risks than usual. This could be a time when you (or someone close to you) breaks free from restricting circumstances, which can cause many changes and unsettled conditions in your life. Things can be very exciting and happen suddenly and unexpectedly.

You are being asked to try something new. Liberate yourself, be independent and uniquely “You”.

Uranus takes 84 years to transit all twelve signs and will spend roughly seven years in each house of your birth chart. Go to the next page to see what areas of your life (houses) Uranus will be transiting in your birth chart from October 2016 through December 2018 and how it is likely to manifest.....

Uranus in your 3rd House

Mar 10, 2011 to May 15, 2021

A shake-up, wake-up and liberation in your thinking, ideas, attitudes, communications and immediate environment will occur over this period.

Original thinking, new and different ways of perceiving the world, new techniques and technology related to learning and communications, and more mental and intellectual stimulation characterize this time period.

Siblings or neighbors could also play a role in your life during this period. Your relationship with them could be erratic and unexpected, or they could introduce you to some unusual concepts and ideas.

You may begin studying a subject which will revolutionize your thinking, and esoteric sciences and techniques (such as astrology) hold particular fascination for you. If you are particularly rigid in your thinking, and uncomfortable with anything that doesn't fit into a neat category with a rational explanation, then this may be a somewhat unsettling time for you. Otherwise, this is an exciting period in which you are exposed to ideas that open new worlds to you.

June 13, 2016 and Sep 14, 2016 (May 20, 2016 to Oct 10, 2016) Ura Oppos Merc

The tempo of your life is very fast at this time. If you live in an urban area or are involved in activities that are fast-paced and dynamic, then this time period will become even more intense. You can expect a lot of phone calls, meetings, and encounters with interesting and unusual people. Your thinking is stimulated by exposure to new ideas, but there is so much going on around you that it may be difficult for you to concentrate. Find enough quiet time to sort things out and think deeply about the exciting and interesting ideas that you encounter now.

Life tends to be rather unpredictable and things have a way of running their own course now regardless of your plans and intentions. It can be an exciting time, but plans can be disrupted. If you have a meeting or event that requires your prompt attendance, then leave early in case unexpected problems arise.

This is an excellent time to learn, particularly in areas that are new for you. Opportunities to explore subjects that you have had little chance to study before will now come to you. This is a time when you can gain a great amount of skill and knowledge, particularly in progressive, unusual, or technological subjects.

While this is an excellent time for learning, think carefully before making major decisions in your life. During this period you are inclined to be taken away by the excitement of the moment, and less sensitive to the practical issues and realities at hand. You may be tempted to make a radical change now and jump into something with out much thought. It is possible that something very exciting and positive could turn up. However, before making a commitment slow down a bit, get all the information and take time to think about it.

Nov 2, 2016 and Feb 21, 2017 (Oct 8, 2016 to Mar 14, 2017) Ura Sxtil Ura

This astrological influence occurs twice in a lifetime, at age 13 - 15 and again at age 69 - 71. At either age, this is a time when you become more independent and self-reliant.

Around age 14 is a time when you make a big step in becoming less dependent on your parents, and learn to depend more on yourself. The teenage years are often a turbulent and difficult period of transition, but during this time period you are able to make the transition a little more smoothly than usual. You will find that at this time, you are better able to communicate with parents about your needs for independence, and make important steps to becoming more self-reliant.

Around age 70 can be a time of discovering new interests, increased enthusiasm for creative activities, and a sense of freedom and enjoyment of life. This is an excellent time to involve yourself in the things that you really enjoy.

June 22, 2018 and Sep 23, 2018 (May 29, 2018 to Oct 19, 2018) Ura Oppos Jup

Daily concerns and worries fade during this time period, and you become motivated by the need to become free of restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities. Even if you do not consciously recognize that this need for freedom is at work, you will find yourself distancing yourself from others that restrict your freedom, investigating alternative life styles that allow greater flexibility and freedom in your life. You may even consider get-rich-quick schemes that would free you from the demands of your current job.

Depending on your current situation, the move to greater freedom can take many forms. You could quit your job, go into business for yourself, speculate in a grand venture, or end a relationship. In one way or another, this is a time when you seek to become free of obligations and restrictions in your life.

It is likely that opportunities for making big changes will occur suddenly, with little advance notice. Consequently you have little time to fully consider the issues and you may be undecided as to whether to make a big move now or not. Here are some guidelines that may help: If you leave your job or distance yourself from another person, be open and sympathetic as to how this will impact others during this process. You could have a tendency now to go merrily on your way, not realizing that you may be hurting others' feelings or leaving people who depended on you without adequate replacement. Also do not jump into a venture that is full of grandiose exaggerations and hyped-up claims.

This is certainly the time when you may receive a wonderful offer or a big breakthrough of some kind, but you could also be overwhelmed by exaggerations and unrealistic optimism. It is up to you to be able to distinguish the difference between a pipe dream and a genuinely sound opportunity.

Idealism, Spirituality and Sensitivity

Neptune Transits:

October 2016 through December 2018

For Miss Incognito

Neptune Transits ♆

Bring: Spiritualization, sensitivity, compassion, idealism, confusion, foginess, creativity, imagination, dreams, visions, mystical and ethereal energy.

Possible experiences: Whatever is keeping you from your spiritual path may unravel and dissolve during a Neptune transit. Previous illusions are revealed and new ones may begin. You will learn to find the truth within, because your perception of the world without could be cloudy and unclear. Neptune's energies can increase your sensitivity, gullibility and psychic openness as it awakens the mystical side of your nature. You may experience spiritual insights and great waves of Universal Love and compassion, a deep inner knowing and a love for all of creation at times. At other times, you may feel overwhelmed and just want to take a long nap. Imagination and creativity are also increased during a Neptune transit.

You are being given the opportunity to let go and to open to the Divine, seek the spiritual and explore your creative abilities.

Neptune takes 165 years to transit all twelve signs and will spend about 13 to 14 years in each house of your birth chart. If we live to be 84, Neptune will transit one half of our birth chart (six houses). Go to the next page to see what areas of your life (houses) Neptune will be transiting in your birth chart from October 2016 through December 2018 and how it is likely to manifest.....

Neptune in your 2nd House

Mar 2006 to Feb 2026

During this time, your values will change tremendously. Money and possessions as a source of security are likely to become much less important to you, and you may become less concerned about financial matters. Disillusionment in the area of material assets, investments, and finances may bring about a complete revision in your sense of what is important. Greater detachment and less anxiety about money are likely to result, in the long run.

Beware of any get-rich-quick schemes and those promising easy wealth. They will not be what they seem to be. Do not take financial matters for granted, and do not rely on other people to manage your finances. Always double check financial matters yourself.

You may find that your income becomes based on spiritual, creative and compassionate work. Always be sure the help you give others is truly deserved, as some people may be tempted to take advantage of your caring nature. If you focus on staying grounded, you can use your intuitive and creative energy in positive ways that will truly help others.

Feb 25, 2017, Nov 5, 2017, Dec 8, 2017 (Apr 2016 to Feb 2018) Nep Trine MC

Your approach to your work and career is highly imaginative at this time, and you can come up with interesting, creative ideas. Your intuition is excellent and the imaginative changes that you introduce now are likely to work very nicely. You are also more service-oriented and sensitive to the needs of others. You are less biased by your own personal goals and needs, and you are better able to see how your contributions fit into the bigger picture. The only negative possibilities from this astrological influence are that others may take advantage of your generous, self-sacrificing nature, aggressively thwart you, or capitalize on your idealistic and tolerant attitude to their advantage and your detriment.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

Into The Future: 2017 and 2018 ♦ Report for Miss Incognito ♦

May 15 and Jul 18, 2017 (Apr 2017 to Feb 2019) Nep Sxtil Moon
Mar 5, Oct 22, and Dec 27, 2018

Sympathy and compassion are highlighted now. You are more understanding, sensitive, accepting, and nonjudgmental of others. Even if you normally have these traits, you will find that you now gain a better appreciation and respect for people that you previously may have neglected, ignored, or misunderstood. This is an excellent time to talk to family members, friends, or associates with whom you have had a feeling of distance or a misunderstanding. You are better able to reach a deep rapport and mutual understanding now. You are also more willing to forgive the mistakes of the past. You will find that at this time it is relatively easy for you to forgive others and drop old grudges and resentments.

This is a spiritually and emotionally uplifting time that will help you forgive yourself and others and release old hurts. Because many problems are started in early relationships with family members, particularly with parents, this process of forgiving and releasing hurt feelings can produce dramatic improvements in your life in the long run.

This is a good time for creative art work, music, poetry, spiritual, or religious activities. You may feel like collecting new art or music, or going to the beach or mountains for inner rejuvenation or inspiration. In short, this is a positive time of heightened feelings and increased sensitivity.

June 19, 2018 (May 3, 2018 to Aug 5, 2018) Nep Sxtil Asc

You encounter people now who are very considerate, understanding and nonjudgmental. You are also likely to form relationships with people based on a deep level of mutual appreciation and understanding for each other. You are in touch with your more sensitive, spiritual qualities, and you are able to express a greater level of sensitivity and greater empathy than usual.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.

Release, Rebirth and Transformation

Pluto Transits:

October 2016 through December 2018

For Miss Incognito

Pluto Transits ♇

Bring: Intensity and power, elimination and deep psychological transformations, a release of previously buried feelings, discovery of self and self empowerment.

Possible experiences: Pluto transits are long lasting and bring a desire or a need to dig deeply and uproot things that are mysterious or have hidden. This can result in huge changes and transformations. You may face your deepest fears, secrets, taboos, and also your own “buried treasure”. You could feel like you died and were reborn. Whatever has outlived its usefulness in your life and is no longer appropriate will be eliminated. Extremes of feeling are experienced, along with cleansing releasing, healing.

Pluto will push you to release that which has outlived its usefulness in your life. Through a process of transformation and inner healing you will learn to own your own power.

Pluto takes 248 years to transit all twelve signs and because of its very elliptical orbit, the time it spends in each sign can vary from 13 to 32 years. The closer it is to the Sun, the faster it appears to move through the heavens from our perspective on earth.

Pluto was actually closer to the Sun than Neptune from December 1978 to March 1999. During that period, Pluto reached its closest approach to the Sun (perihelion) on September 4, 1989. That means those of us living on earth at this time are having the opportunity to experience a great deal of transformation in our lives because Pluto is transiting more quickly through our charts. As an example, during the 65 year period of 1835 to 1900, Pluto was moving at its slowest rate and moved through just a little over two signs in the birth charts of people living at that time, or about 17% of their chart. However, during the 65 year period of 1955 to 2025, Pluto will move through five signs, or about 42% of our chart. As a result, much more of our life will be transformed.

This also helps explain the rapid progress of transformative changes the world has been experiencing during out lifetime.

The transits of Pluto can have a profound effect upon us and can last from two to three years. It may take another year or two or even longer before we begin to fully realize how much our lives have transformed.

From now to 2050, Pluto will take between 16 to 22 years to transit a house in your birth chart.

Go to the next page to see what areas of your life (houses) Pluto will be transiting from October 2016 through December 2018 in your birth chart and how it is likely to manifest.....

Pluto in your 12th House

Dec 2004 to Nov 30, 2016

(This area of transformation in your life began in December 2004 and is now is now phasing out.)

A transformation of your inner self, karmic conditions, and spiritual connections will occur over this period. You will confront aspects of yourself that you usually keep secret or that you have been unaware even existed. Some of this will be related to karmic conditions and relationships. Buried feelings and hidden psychic material may begin to emerge. It's time to eliminate forces which have been influencing or sabotaging you without your realizing it. You may also discover some buried treasure within yourself which can turn out to be very helpful to you.

This is a time of completing karma and letting go of old ways of being and old karmic relationships. You may feel like you already know some of the people who come into your life during this period. You may have a sudden intense like or dislike (possibly both at the same time) for someone. When that happens, it could be a sign of a karmic connection with that person. This could mean several things. Maybe there is something left undone from a previous life that needs to be completed. But it could also be possible that it is an opportunity for you to react in a new way and release an unhealthy emotional pattern by not engaging with that person. It may be hard to know. Tune into your Higher Self for answers and help.

This is an excellent time for in-depth spiritual studies, meditation, yoga, dream analysis or to enter psychotherapy. Hypnosis or other methods which tap into the deeper layers of your mind are especially fruitful now.

Your inner transformation will be done mostly alone and behind the scenes and takes many years to work through. Spiritual help and guidance is always there for you. All you have to do is ask and be willing to listen. However, don't expect all the answers all at once. It will be many years later before you fully realize how much this time of spiritual awakening and inner healing changed your life.

When Pluto leaves the 12th house and moves into your 1st house, you will feel like a new person. At that time you will bring the spiritual growth you have experienced out into the world for all to see.

Sep 26, 2016 (Mar 1, 2014 to Oct 12, 2016)

Plu Conj Moon

This transit is now ending, but it has been in effect for the past two to three years. I am including it because it could help provide you with some insight and perspective as to what has been going on in your life.

This a period lasting about two-three years when you will transform your emotional and intuitive nature. In order to regenerate this part of yourself, you may need to reach back and retrieve feelings that have remained hidden, forgotten or set aside since childhood. Your feelings and emotions are much more intense now than usual and your intuition is powerfully activated.

Your Moon is in the sign of Capricorn, which means you are naturally reserved in showing your emotions. You can be quite serious and often are very hard on yourself. You may judge your self worth by how much you accomplish in the outer world. You are usually quite stoic and try very hard to avoid displaying your emotions in public. You are practical, realistic, handle responsibility well and have natural managerial and organizational abilities. You feel very comfortable with the practical necessities of life, but not so much with the emotional side. During this period of time, your emotions are going to be transformed. You will find yourself openly revealing more about your feeling/ intuitive side than you ever have before. Even though this will take you out of your comfort zone, it will be something you intensely feel the need to do. It is said that those born with the Moon in Capricorn (such as yourself) are old when they are young, and young when they are old. So, the older you are when you experience this influence, the easier it should be to show your feelings. Let your child within come out in the world.

Your connection with the ebb and flow of nature also is stimulated. Being outside and communing with Mother Earth can be very fulfilling for you now. You may have flashes of childhood memories in which you experience the feelings you had then. If that happens, then these are the experiences that are now being released and transformed. Even if there are no specific memories, you may still feel the urge to reconnect with your imaginative, intuitive Spirit Self that was more accessible as a child. In doing so, you may discover inner talents that were buried at a very young age.

Issues involving home and family will also be extremely important now. You may experience powerful transformations through the females in your life. This is especially true of your connection to mother issues - your own mother, or you as a mother or as a nurturing parent. Your relationship with your mother and/or your children is likely to go through big changes. Some may become mothers, others will find it is time to let go and transform the mother-child relationship. If you are a male, you may find the women in your life going through a transformation which, in turn, will affect your own emotions. Also, your own experiences of being nurtured and nurturing others may require your attention. Much depends on your childhood and your mothering/nurturing experience. This is an opportunity to get rid of emotional baggage that you have been dragging around all your life. It is a once-in-a-lifetime chance to uncover your real feelings and to strengthen and regenerate your emotional and intuitive center.

Acknowledge and allow your feelings to surface in a responsible manner. Honor your intuition. If you feel overwhelmed by your emotions, talking to someone else may be useful at this time and some form of therapy can be very helpful. If handled successfully, you can release emotional blockages that you have been carrying around your whole life, and consequently your overall disposition and mood, and attitude towards life is greatly enhanced.

There is also a strong possibility of a change of residence or a major transformation in your current home and lifestyle. The family structure is also likely to go through changes. Now is the time to make your home environment one that truly brings you a sense of comfort, belonging, security and sanctuary.

Pluto in your 1st House

Dec 2016 to Nov 2036

A transformation of your outer appearance, outer personality, personal initiative and individual goals will occur over this period.

This will be a twenty year period of profound personal transformation. Everything from your outward appearance to your deepest inner feelings about yourself are apt to change during this cycle. Aspects of yourself which were previously hidden and which you may never even suspected were there will begin to emerge. Other aspects of yourself and your life will be eliminated or radically changed.

You are ready to deal with whatever is deep inside and to bring it into the light of day. You will not want to live on a superficial level. You will take the initiative to achieve your personal desires. A new power and confidence in your ability to meet the world will result. You have entered a new phase of your life.

Dec 31, 2016, Sep 10 and Oct 16, 2017 (Jan 2016 to Dec 2017) Plu Conj Asc

This is part of a two year period of great personal change. You were born with a Capricorn ascendant which means you have a natural tendency to approach life in a responsible, serious and ambitious manner. You work hard and like to be in charge. However, at this point, you may become tired of your role in life and begin to be very sensitive to any habits, customs, and social requirements that hide the "real you". You may feel that for too long you have been doing what you felt you were "supposed to do" because of duty, obligation or the wish for approval and achievement. You will feel a powerful desire to assert your inner needs and motivations more strongly. You may change your manner of dress, your hair style, and your mannerisms. Even if you do not consciously change any of these personality traits, they are likely to change now anyway. You drop any superficialities and pretenses and become a more sincere, intense person.

This process can be a challenging one, and you will probably wonder at times if you are doing the right thing. However, you also have an overwhelming need to be your authentic self. This desire is so strong and you will be so focused on uncovering the real you, that there are times when you may be oblivious to the needs of others. In fact, you would probably be surprised if you knew how intensely you come across to others and the impact you have upon them at this time.

By being aware of these energies and handling your power with responsibility, integrity and balance, you can become a positive powerful force for transformation and change in the world around you.

Note that the precise timing of this astrological influence is very dependent on the exact birth time, so the dates given are accurate only if your birth time is very accurate.
