1. Saturn conjunct Pluto in Capricorn in 2020

Exact on January 12, 2020 at 22°47' Capricorn -In effect: January 2018 to December 2021

Structures and support systems are tested. Major geo-political power struggles occur to gain control, influence and resources. Things started now can have unforeseen major consequences. A time when karmic consequences are met and karmic choices are made. There is a deep level of secrecy, intensity, intrigue and mystery. Something is hidden. Possible criminal or underhanded conduct. There can be much below the surface that is not seen by the public. This conjunction begins a new cycle every 33-38 years.

- The House Committee on Un-American Activities begins hearings to ferret out communists in the movie industry on October 20, 1947.

★January 13, 1518—Saturn conjunct Pluto in Capricorn— In effect: January 1517—December 1519

A new order and a new nation will rise to ascendancy in the 20th century, but at the time, that is far from obvious. The outcome was unknown. It was the Plutonian energy of "going for it" - no matter what- that enabled a new country based on freedom, equality and democracy to be victorious.
- Captain James Cook explores and maps the South Pacific, New Zealand, Australia, Antarctic, and Hawaii in 1768-1779. He also mapped the west coast of North America from California all the way to the Bering Strait.
- Famous Capricorns during the revolutionary war era: Benjamin Franklin, Paul Revere, Betsy Ross, John Hancock, Alexander Hamilton, Benedict Arnold, General Cornwallis.

3. Jupiter conjunct Saturn in Aquarius in 2020

Exact on December 21, 2020 at 00°29' Aquarius -In effect February 2020 to March 2021

This conjunction has always been considered of great significance from the time man first looked at the night sky. It happens when the largest planets, Jupiter and Saturn, meet in the heavens. As they move together, the two planets are very bright and easily seen. It represents a time of great impact on social structures, systems, future developments and what we consider important in society. This conjunction begins a new cycle every 20 years.

However, the upcoming 2020 Jupiter-Saturn conjunction has a much greater significance than usual.

The Jupiter-Saturn conjunction occurs in the same element (Fire, Earth, Air or Water) for about 200 years at a time. The 2020 conjunction marks the point when the element will change from Earth to Air.

Our orientation has been to the Earth element since 1842. The Earth signs are Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn. The Earth element is focused on the physical world and is concerned with wealth creation, land settlement, physical and material comforts and security. During this time we have become an industrialized society with much more material wealth for large groups of people than ever before. We have built cities, towns and roads, expanded farming methods and increased trade and commerce around the world. We have used coal, oil, mining, fertilizers and pesticides to make this possible. Instead of being good stewards of our resources, we have plundered the earth for material gain. This era is ending, but it won't go out without a fight.

In 2020, we are shifting into the Air element, where we will stay until 2219. The air signs are Gemini, Libra and Aquarius. Our orientation and what we consider to be a priority is going to change and develop over the next 200 years. The Air element era is associated with rapid social progress, intellectual development, communications and new concepts in human consciousness. The focus is on expanding our knowledge about our place in the universe. The downside could be too much of a focus on

The Jupiter-Saturn conjunction that shifts elements is called a Great Mutation Conjunction. The Conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn on December 21, 2020 is a Great Mutation Conjunction.

The last time we were in the Air element was almost 800 years ago, from 1226 to 1424.

You are being given an opportunity to take ownership and responsibility as you transform and RESET your life by using these Capricorn energies.

This RESET will involve getting out of your comfort zone and releasing lifelong habits, attitudes, beliefs and behaviors that are holding you back from being fully in charge of your life. You may have been thinking about making some changes or starting something new for at least the last year. The cosmic energies will be stirring things up and getting things started for you in 2019. You will need to be realistic and honest in order to do this. No rose colored glasses allowed. You can make the most of this opportunity by accepting responsibility and knowing you are in charge of your life. You can do this with faith and a positive outlook for the future. You can do this by having the courage to let go of that which is no longer helpful in your life. Everything you have experienced and learned in life thus far was for a reason and has led you to where you are on your life path at this very moment. You needed to have the experience and wisdom you have gained in order to be ready for this phase of your life. You can now take responsibility and ownership of your power.

HOW:

By releasing that which has outlived its usefulness in your life and accepting your own power and capabilities. This will require digging deep, uprooting and facing your fears. Some things may need to be eliminated in your life. You could experience extremes of feeling, power surges, releasing, cleansing, healing and a rebirth.

By being patient, disciplined, responsible, mature, realistic and purposeful. You may feel more serious and focused on your work and duties, either by choice or necessity. Things could seem to move slowly and take extra effort. Persevere and be patient. Accept whatever new responsibilities life brings you. The tests you have now will help you gain depth, character, wisdom and mastery.

By having faith and a positive outlook. Seek to improve your life by believing in yourself and expanding your possibilities.
